FROM: Robert W. Gambino
Director of Security

SUBJECT: Office of Security Significant Activities
Week of 1 February 1979 (U)

REFERENCE: DDA Administrative Instruction No. 74-5

1. This memorandum is for information only. (U)
2. The activities of the Office of Security during the week of 1 - 7 February 1979 were highlighted by the following items:

a. This week an enhancement of the Security Access Records System (SARS) was activated which provides for the automated recording of entries to Headquarters Building by holders of "Visitor - No Escort Required" (VNE) badges. Previously, such entries were recorded using a cumbersome punched card system. In a related matter, an experimental "turnaround" of the Security Access Control System (SACS) badge machines will be conducted at the Northeast Entrance in the next two weeks. This experiment will examine the feasibility of using the SACS machines to record exits as well as entries. (A/IUO)

b. The Director of Security met with representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to explore ways of verifying the existence and retrievability of fingerprints forwarded by the Agency to the FBI. This action was precipitated by the inability of the FBI to locate the fingerprints of former employee [REDACTED]. (A/IUO)

1 - 7 February 1979

1. On 25 January, a representative of the Office met with representatives of the Office of Logistics and the Regional Sales Manager from the Burroughs Corporation to discuss the possible purchase by the Agency of a pilot run of letter-size paper, "Super Safety II," to be used for sensitive documents when proliferation of Xerox copies is undesirable. The paper, although reproducible, reflects a printed symbol (e.g., "VOID") across the face of reproduced copies. The Burroughs Corporation has the matter under advisement.
